No. 2:16-cv-00445-RSL

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle

1 parties to file confidential information under seal.

2 2. "CONFIDENTIAL" MATERIAL

3 "Confidential" material shall include the following documents and tangible things
4 produced or otherwise exchanged:

- 5 • Financial documents and records, including but not limited to tax records and 6 statements, income statements, balance sheets, documentation of profits & losses,
7 and payment records;
- 8 • Personal identifying information, including but not limited to social security 9 numbers, dates of birth, and account numbers;
- 10 • Trust documents and records for the James D. and Jacqueline H. Gilmur Living 11 Trust.

12 3. SCOPE

13 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 14 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2)
15 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
16 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.
17 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in the 18 public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

19 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

20 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
21 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
22 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to 23 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential
24 material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner
25 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.
26

1 4.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise
2 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 3 disclose any confidential material only to:

4 (a) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of counsel
5 to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

6 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the receiving
7 party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties agree that a
8 particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so designated;

9 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation
10 and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

11 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

12 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 13 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
14 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
15 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

16 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably
17 necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit 18 A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 19 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 20 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted
21 under this agreement;

22 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 23 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

24 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 25 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party
26

1 to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether the
2 document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is 3 warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 4 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 5 seal.

6 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party
8 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 9 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
10 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 11 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 12 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not 13 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

14 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 15 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 16 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 17 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

18 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 19 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 20 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

21 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 22 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 23 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 24 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

25 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and deposition

1 exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), the 2 designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains 3 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 4 protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 5 making appropriate markings in the margins).

6 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings: the parties
7 must identify on the record, during the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected 8 testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after reviewing the 9 transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving a deposition
10 transcript, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential.

11 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the 12 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
13 "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 14 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

15 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 16 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's
17 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 18 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is 19 treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

20 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

21 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 22 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 23 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 24 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 25 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 26

1 original designation is disclosed.

2 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
3 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 4 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in
5 a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
6 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The 7 certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to 8 confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

9 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
10 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 11 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 12 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 13 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 14 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to 15 maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

16 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
17 LITIGATION

18 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
19 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL," that 20 party must:

21 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the subpoena
22 or court order;

23 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the 24 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this 25 agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

26 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. Parties shall confer on an appropriate non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502.

10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction. Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

DATED this 22nd day of May, 2017.
